

FEDERAL JUDGE MAY BE OUSTED

Prospect Good For Impeachment of Swayne of Florida.

HOUSE COMMITTEE IN FAVOR

MANY CHARGES ON FILE AGAINST THE JURIST.

Washington, March 21.—The house committee on judiciary today voted to impeach Charles Swayne, federal judge for the district of Florida. The committee reached this conclusion after a session lasting from 2 o'clock until 6. The vote and the details of the charges which will form the ground of impeachment the committee agreed to withhold until the report on the case is completed for presentation to the house. This report is to be drawn by Representative Palmer of Pennsylvania, chairman of the sub-committee which took the testimony in the case. The sub-committee, Messrs. Palmer and Clayton of Alabama, reported to the full committee in favor of impeachment. The committee also received a report from the sub-committee on the impeachment of Judge Gillett of California reported against it.

Senate Will Judge.
Mr. Palmer's report will be prepared by the house committee on judiciary. Judge Swayne, who was impeached in 1892, was appointed to the Florida bench in 1893. He was re-elected in 1896, 1898, 1900, 1902, and 1904. The case against Judge Swayne was conducted by the sub-committee on the impeachment of Judge Gillett of California reported against it.

Three Others Impeached.
The last impeachment proceedings were the case of Secretary Belknap. Only three federal judges have been impeached. The proceedings against Judge Swayne, which began in 1892, were delayed for several weeks by the adjournment of the present session of congress. If the senate decides to impeach Judge Swayne, the penalty attached to the decision is loss of his judgeship.

Little Girl Drowned.
Boise, Idaho, March 21.—Near Weiser last evening the 3-year-old daughter of Samuel Kling was drowned in the Snake river. The little one fell in while playing on the bank. She was about 10 months old. The body was found about 100 yards below.

Preparing For an Exam.
(New York Tribune.)
At a dinner in Philadelphia of the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the Revolution George F. Baer, the president of the Reading railroad, said:

"There is no man in the state whom I can't help admiring. I am a man, in a recent letter to our main office, asked for rates, distances, time and so forth for very important kinds of freight over our principal lines. The letter probed deep into our traffic business; it was indicative of a keen mind; it was indicative of a man who was not content with a superficial treatment, would become a valuable patron of the line."

"We sent, by express, one of our brightest young traffic agents to see him. The agent got off at his station, and had to walk five miles through the woods to reach his house. Arriving, with some dispatching from a small farm, the agent took from his pocket the long list of rates that three clerks had spent half the night in compiling, and he said to the old man:

"I have come, sir, from the Reading office to answer your recent letter in person. Here on these pages you will find each of your questions treated in detail. May we hope to do some business with you?"

"The farmer looked over the list of answers with a grunt of satisfaction. 'You're from the railroad, eh?' he said. 'Well, you can't hope for no business from me, but I'm obliged to you just the same for all this information. It's for my son. You see, he's got to take an examination next month, and a lot of it will be about railroads, so I thought I'd get him some railroad facts first hand.'"

Reflections of a Bachelor.
(New York Press.)
A woman has got to be built very carefully to look slender when she wears white stockings.

"If a woman is not slender over the man she loves she is bound to think it is all right somehow."

"You could never make a woman believe that if she were killed in a railway accident the corner would not talk more about her clothes than her fate."

"Half the fun of being a bachelor is thinking to the man who wishes to marry, 'I wish I was married, but I haven't time to get married, so I'll stay single.'"

"There is nothing that makes a woman sure her husband doesn't love her as to have him try to save money to take care of her and the children if he should die."

Pointed Paragraphs.
(Chicago News.)
More men would have indignation if forced to eat their words.

"Call a man a diplomat instead of a diplomat and he will be pleased; yet it amounts to much the same thing."

"As the wise man knows he is a fool he is miserable; the fool imagines he is wise and is happy."

Adam and Eve probably visited the tree of knowledge for the purpose of studying the higher branches.

"The creation of women is said to have been an afterthought next month, and why she considers the postscript of a letter the most important part."

"Divorces are so common now that they are no longer considered good theatrical advertisements."

"The widow's recovery from her grief sometimes depends upon the promptness of the life insurance company."

Aw, Gwan!
(Chicago Tribune.)
"Pelleger, who always used to be wanting to fight somebody, has retired from the ring for good, having been 'Yes, he's wrapped up in that youngster of his. He says the boy is a chip off the old block.'"

"It is that way he's always carrying him around on his shoulder."

CHINESE LABOR

Europeans in South Africa Against Balfour's Policy.

VOLE OF CENSURE MOVED

SLAVERY FOR THE BENEFIT OF MINE OWNERS.

London, March 21.—In the house of commons today the Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, moved his vote of censure, presented March 19, to the effect that "this house disapproves the conduct of his majesty's government in advising the crown not to disallow the ordinance for the introduction of Chinese labor into the Transvaal."

Sir Henry said nothing the government had done since the close of the South African war so sorely tried the people of this country as the introduction of Chinese labor into South Africa. If the new departure was not checked it would be a source of weakness, not only to the Transvaal but to the whole of South Africa. It was a departure from the principles by which the government had hitherto made its way in the world that the importation of aliens as the bondsmen of mining speculators.

Opposed to Yellow Labor.
The Europeans in South Africa, Sir Henry declared, were by a large majority opposed to yellow labor and the object of his motion was to stop the government's policy in its earliest stage.

The Liberal leader thought nothing but averting a possible catastrophe could justify the case he had been presenting. The time of the war the government declared it was in the interest of the Transvaal to accept Chinese labor. This was the biggest scheme for human dumping since the "middle passage" was abolished.

Indignant Denial.
Colonial Secretary Lyttelton, replying, indignantly repelled the allegation that the government was favoring slavery. The government, he asserted, had been guided by the overwhelming sentiment in the Transvaal, and the economic necessity of the Transvaal. The ministry had adopted the only alternative to the Chinese labor, and the Transvaal had increased sufficiently to fill the Transvaal with unskilled labor. The government was well aware that it had been unpopular and that it was open to misrepresentation, but it had expected such gross misrepresentation, and it had expected such gross misrepresentation, and it had expected such gross misrepresentation.

Defense of Chinamen.
Defending Chinamen against the charge of immorality, Mr. Lyttelton read a letter from the Chinese consul in London, saying that the Chinamen were a law-abiding, industrious, and peace-loving people. The policy of the government was to encourage the immigration of Chinese labor into the Transvaal, and the Chinese labor was to be used in the Transvaal, and the Chinese labor was to be used in the Transvaal.

Got a Big Rake-off.
Mr. Hale spoke of what he termed "the impudence" of the architect in declaring that the cost of the building was temporary. The idea of the architect, he said, was that it was to be a permanent affair, and the appropriation of enormous fees to the architects employed in connection with the White House improvements, and said they had received $5,000 for the plans.

GREAT BRITAIN STANDS ALONE

Not a Single Friend Among the Powers of Europe.

HENRY NORMAN'S PROPHECY

WAR A BLESSING IN DISGUISE FOR RUSSIA.

New York, March 21.—Under the title "The War and After," Henry Norman, M. P., discussed the probable after-effects of the Russian-Japanese war in the forthcoming number of the "World's Work." He says that it is most important that one fact should be clearly realized, that it is a disaster for the control of China, Korea and Manchuria are subordinate issues. The real object is predominance in the Far East.

From the highest to the lowest, moderation of language, respect for the feelings of other nations and a sense of responsibility appear to have been lost."

For their first extensive land operations. The five points are the Yalu river, New Chung, Port Arthur, Vladivostok and Pigeon bay. The Russians being unable to determine where Japan will make her main attack, are making preparations and taking precautions at all five points.

AT THEIR OWN RISK.
Germans Counsel Not to Remain at New Chung.
Tientsin, March 21.—The German consul from Tientsin at a meeting of German citizens held here yesterday, sold all residents of that nationality that they remain at New Chung at their own risk, and that in the event of loss of property recovery was doubtful. Also that in the event that Russia was defeated the recovery of losses, if possible, would only be after a long time, but if Japan was defeated recovery would be sooner. The British residents propose to protest against the indefinite absence of a warship from New Chung.

RUSSIANS FALLING BACK.
Will Not Fight Until They Are Certain of Victory.
St. Petersburg, March 21.—General Zhilinsky's official confirmation of the reports that the Russian outposts had abandoned Antsugui and the Chinese Japanese in force, causes no surprise. Such action is in perfect accord with the Russian plan of campaign. Russian skirmishing outposts, thrown forward for the purpose of harassing and worrying the Japanese outposts, fell back as the main body of the enemy moved forward. The Russian positions at the Yalu river are reached. The fifty miles of country between Antsugui and the Yalu are very difficult for the movement of a large force. There may be some advance, but the Japanese advance position is not to be reached until certain of victory.
